AMADEUS GREY ran with plenty of credit when runner-up on his first attempt on Fibresand earlier in the month and Tim Easterby's gelding is capable of improving on that effort off a 1lb higher mark. Challet went close to completing the hat-trick when beaten half a length into third at Pontefract last time and he could have more to offer, while Visibility is of interest on his first start for local handler Scott Dixon.
7|RED JASPER|84 - 3|BLACKCASTLE STORM|77 - 5|NATIVE SILVER|73

WORDEN PARK has been running with credit of late, having placed twice at Redcar, and the switch to handicap company may unlock further progression if she proves capable of handling this surface. Gorgeous General went close on his latest outing over C&D and is likely to be in the mix again, along with Time To Reason, who was in decent form earlier in the year.

EXALTED ANGEL made it back-to-back C&D victories when returning from a 216-day break in style earlier this month and Karl Burke's Dark Angel gelding had plenty in hand at the finish there, which suggests a 10lb rise might not be enough to stop him. Scott Dixon's track-and-trip winning pair of Crosse Fire and Samovar finished third and fourth respectively in that contest and can't be ignored, while King Of Stars landed a maiden over this trip on the same card and is interesting now handicapping.
 1|KATHEEFA|95 - 3|ASTRO JAKK|91 - 7|ALEEF|87

Amor de Mi Vida sets the standard on the form she has achieved to date but has to prove herself on Fibresand. With that in mind, the vote goes to BARBAROMA, who improved plenty from his debut when runner-up over C&D earlier this month and Robert Cowell's colt is likely to progress again from that effort. Tatsthewaytodoit and Driftwood complete the shortlist.

SON OF RED bumped into a well-handicapped rival when having to settle for second at Yarmouth recently, but Alan King's three-year-old is heading in the right direction and could open his account off a 1lb higher mark. Course winner Mr Carbonator enjoyed his return to this venue when picking up a silver medal earlier this month and has to be respected off the same rating, while Grand Pianola wasn't too far behind when fifth in that contest and is also noted.

ARZAAK finished second here in August before another promising run at Yarmouth (third) and looks handicapped to strike now with Richard Kingscote doing the steering. The six-year-old is 20lb below his last winning mark, which came at this venue in 2018, and appeals marginally more than Sir Rodneyredblood, who is also consistent but tries Fibresand for the first time now. May The Sixth took a big step forward from her debut third here when successful at Wolverhampton earlier this month and is also noted.

CURTIZ just bumped into a well-handicapped winner here a fortnight ago when second and could go one better for a trainer with a good record on Fibresand. The three-year-old remains unexposed in handicap company and perhaps first-time blinkers will provide a helping hand. Six Til Twelve seldom runs a bad race here and shaped well on his first start for 215 days when third at Kempton recently, while recent C&D runner-up Sweet Angel is also taken seriously on just her fifth career start.
