HARRY SENIOR looked a really nice prospect over hurdles last season with his only disappointment coming in the Albert Bartlett at the Cheltenham Festival, a time when Colin Tizzard's string were not running to their best. The Grade 2 winner looks tailor-made for fences and could be tough to beat on his chasing bow. Paint The Dream was no match for Grand Sancy at Chepstow recently, but has chasing experience on his side and can't be ruled out, while Happygolucky was a smart novice hurdler last term, a fast-finishing fourth in the Martin Pipe when last seen.

6[PAINT THE DREAM]133 - 1[BLACK KALANISI] - 2[EARTH MOOR]

GO MILLIE GO progressed nicely last season and was unfortunate to bump into a match-fit rival when second on her reappearance at Bangor last month. That will have blown away the cobwebs and she could go one better here to get off the mark. Polly Grundy saddles two interesting recruits from the pointing field in Gio's Girl and Don't Rightly Know, while Sandymount Rose and Whiteoak Fleur both bring useful experience to the table.

DOUX PRETENDER is the clear pick of these on official ratings and the former Seven Barrows inmate could make a bright start to life in the hands of Charles and Adam Pogson if fully tuned up following a 516-day absence. My Destiny was a surprise winner on his sole appearance so far and is another attempting to defy a long break representing Bernard Llewellyn. Larch Hill wasn't completely beaten off when a faller at Carlisle recently and reverts to hurdles, while Floating Rock and Fakenham runner-up Skeaping have match fitness on their side and are others to note.
 2|FLOATING ROCK|107 - 4|HIGHLAND BOBBY|99 - 1|SKEAPING|78

Course form is no bad thing to have here and TEMPLEHILLS won off a career-low mark at this venue earlier in the month. Formerly with this yard before a switch to Jonjo O'Neill's team last season, the nine-year-old arrived back at Naunton on a fair mark, and may have more to offer. Mystical Clouds (first) accounted for Aintree My Dream (second) at Kempton in February and could confirm that running having switched from Alan King to John Butler.

Above Suspicion made a pleasing debut over hurdles when third at Uttoxeter four weeks ago and may well be wiser this time. Tom George's string aren't firing on all cylinders just yet, but this five-year-old should be fitter for that recent run. Galan Des Planches was beaten in a Fontwell bumper 47 days ago but could do better now hurdling, although it might take a good one to account for GALICE MACALO. A recent Warwick winner over the sticks, she receives 1lb from the field here and doesn't lack for speed.

13|GALICE MACALO|123 - 1|ABOVE SUSPICION|92 - 4|ELIOS D'OR|74

CHAMPAGNESUPEROVER was third in a Listed bumper at Newbury when last seen in February and looks to be an exciting recruit over timber for Oily Murphy. The winner of that contest has since enjoyed a prolific spell on the level, boasting a rating of 104, and this son of Jeremy should have a nice future in this discipline. Balleticon shaped well in bumper company in 2018/19 but it has clearly been a task getting him back on track, while Global Effect might be good enough for third.

SUMMIT LIKE HERBIE shaped on his return when third at Ffos Las as though he would step forward from that outing and he makes plenty of appeal off the same mark on this occasion. Jean Genie ran well on his handicap debut at the same venue earlier in the month and he warrants consideration along with Cuban Pete, who won when fresh last season at Hereford.

SOYOUTHINKSOAGAIN took a big step forward when runner-up at Carlisle last week and connections opt to take advantage off the same mark with the handicapper putting him up 10lb for that performance. Scrutinise went up 4lb for his recent course success and he is likely to enter the reckoning with Orchard Grove, who was bought for 22,000 pounds at the Goffs UK sale having placed on his handicap bow at Kilbeggan.
