Wedmarkt: 1.50 Fulgurix (Fr), 2.00 Blackfinch, 7.00 Ulverston (Ire), 12.00 Oneupmanship (Ire), 12.00 The Big Sting (Ire), 16.00 Mr Katanga (Ire), 16.00 Kracquer, 20.00 Bretney (Ire), 50.00 Top Drawer (Ire), 100.00 The Big Yin

Blackfinch sets the form standard despite an odds-on defeat at Ffos Las earlier this month and will go close if running to his official rating of 124. Mr Katanga warrants a market check on his stable debut for Ollly Murphy, but this can go the way of FULGURIX, who has an intriguing profile for Simon Munir and Isaac Souede. Second on his only start in France, the five-year-old is related to plenty of winners in his homeland and could get off the mark. 1|BLACKFINCH|128 - 10|ULVERSTON|124 - 2|BRETNEY|95

Wedmarkt: 0.91 Get In The Queue, 3.00 The Cob (Ire), 5.00 Pounding Poet (Ire), 7.00 Peachey (Ire), 20.00 Grain De Thaix (Fr), 25.00 Everything Now (Ire), 50.00 Dr Keenan (Ire), 50.00 Wilde Water (Ire), 66.00 Thebudinpundit, 100.00 Just Henny

GET IN THE QUEUE has had injury issues for Harry Fry, but he was unbeaten in three bumpers in the 2018/19 season and connections will have been itching to get the six-year-old out over hurdles. He was successful in a NHF contest here on debut, and could improve for the step up in distance over obstacles. Pounding Poet was second in a bumper here in August and could do better now jumping for Tom Lacey, while The Cob and recent Stratford faller Peachey are others worth taking seriously. Wedmarkt: 2.25 Panic Attack (Ire), 2.50 Yauthym (Ger), 4.50 White Hart Lady (Ire), 10.00 Lill Smith (Ire), 10.00 Gold Clermont (Fr), 12.00 Waterlefe Getaway (Ire), 16.00 Flat White (Fr), 20.00 Midnight Antics (Ire), 25.00 Emmressive Lady (Ire), 25.00 Legendary Rhythm, 25.00 Boro Babe (Fr), 50.00 Just Once, 66.00 Spot On Soph (Ire), 200.00 The Feckenham Fox

YAUTHYM claimed some black type when third in a Listed event at Doncaster earlier this year and could enjoy another fruitful season in the care of Fergal O'Brien. The four-year-old jumped nicely on that occasion and, after just two UK starts over hurdles, remains open to much improvement. Panic Attack was deemed good enough to run in the Champion Bumper at Cheltenham in March and will have learnt plenty from her hurdles debut when second at Huntingdon 17 days ago. Gold Clermont is also worth noting. 13|YAUTHYM|125 - 6|LILL SMITH|79 - 3|GOLD CLERMONT|69

COMMANDER MILLER ran on to finish second at Warwick last month and the six-year-old is capable of going one better on this occasion despite going up 6lb for that performance. Milreu Has boasts the profile of one that may improve considerably now switching his attention to handicaps for the first time. Others to note include Bridey's Lettuce, who makes his first outing since July 2019, and Top Beak. 16|MANOR PARK|102 - 13|MINELLA FIVEO|101 - 8|CRACK DU NINIAN|98

Wedmarkt: 2.00 Fishkhov (Fr), 5.00 Cousu Main (Fr), 5.50 Landen Calling (Ire), 6.00 Pirate Of The Sea (Ire), 8.00 Mozzaro (Ire), 11.00 Can You Call, 16.00 Ballybreeze, 16.00 Key To The Moon (Ger), 25.00 Ben Ten, 25.00 Baby Ben (Ire), 33.00 Woodford Bridge, 33.00 The Grey Falco (Fr), 33.00 Denable, 50.00 Liquidiser

FISHKHOV finished second on his sole point-to-point outing at Dromahane last December and subsequently cost 115,000 pounds at the Goffs UK sale in January. His trainer Harry Fry has won bumpers at this track with some of his better prospects in recent seasons, most notably the ill-fated Neon Wolf and King Roland for these owners, and the son of Sholokhov is capable of adding his name to that list. Can You Call was outclassed in the Champion Bumper at Cheltenham, but had shown ability behind the fourth in that contest, Third Time Lucki, when fourth on debut at Market Rasen and is feared along with Landen Calling and Cousu Main.

KING ROLAND tends to go well fresh and gets the vote to make a winning debut over fences. He hasn't done a great deal wrong in his short racing career to date, ending last season with a placed effort in Grade 2 company over hurdles, and might improve for having had wind surgery and for the application of a tongue-tie. Cheddleton also ran well in a Grade 2 hurdle when last sighted and he merits close consideration representing an in-form Jennie Candlish stable, while Getaway Fred and Gumball add further spice to a cracking race.

Given plenty of time to freshen up after a disappointing effort here in January, it would come as no surprise to see OVERAWED bounce right back to form. She won this race during a successful spell at the back end of last year and, with conditions to suit, she is capable of another big performance. Black Tulip is entitled to improve for her comeback third and should run well, while Arqalina is another better than showing last time.

TIS FANTASTIC made the perfect start to his chasing career when scoring comfortably over an extended 2m3f at Stratford in August and he could follow up off a 6lb higher mark. Joly Maker ran well enough off this rating over 2m at Ffos Las last time and warrants respect stepping back up in distance, while Spirit Of Hale also merits consideration despite being absent since March.
